

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA GREAT FALLS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DANIEL WILLIAM DOBLER,

Defendant.

CR-17-04-GF-BMM

ORDER

United States Magistrate Judge John Johnston entered Findings and Recommendations in this matter on January 18, 2023. (Doc. 118.)

When a party makes no objections, the Court need not review de novo the proposed Findings and Recommendations. Bad Old Man v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 153-52 (1986). This Court will review Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations, however, for clear error. McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Commodore Bus. Mach., Inc., 656 F.2d 1309, 1313 (9th Cir. 1981).

Judge Johnston conducted a revocation hearing on January 17, 2023. (Doc. 114.) The United States accused Daniel Dobler, (Dobler) of violating his conditions of supervised release 1) by inhaling a synthetic stimulant; 2) by committing another crime on three separate occasions; 3) by failing to report for substance abuse treatment; 4) by failing to make monthly restitution payments; 5) by failing to notify his probation officer of a change in residence; 6) by possession methamphetamine and heroin; and 7) by failing to notify his probation officer of a contact with law enforcement. (Doc. 112.)

At the revocation hearing, Dobler admitted to violating the conditions of his supervised release 1) by inhaling a synthetic stimulant; 2) by failing to report for substance abuse treatment; 3) by failing to make monthly restitution payments; and 4) by failing to notify his probation officer of a contact with law enforcement. The court dismissed alleged violations 2, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10 upon the Government's motion. (Doc. 114.) Judge Johnston found that the violations Dobler admitted proved to be serious and warranted revocation, and recommended revocation of Dobler's supervised release and recommended a custodial sentence for 6 months, with no supervised release to follow. (Doc. 118.) Dobler was advised of his right to appeal and his right to allocute before the undersigned and he waived those rights. (Doc. 114.) The violations prove serious and warrant revocation of Dobler's supervised release. The Court finds no clear error in Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations.

Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations (Doc. 118) are ADOPTED IN FULL. IT IS FURTHER

ORDERED that Defendant Daniel William Dobler be sentenced to the Bureau of Prisons for 6 months, with no supervised release to follow.

DATED this 18th day of January, 2023.
